The Elder Hall Appeal

The smile of this beautiful person appears like a missing tooth in conservation requires keeping up appearances.

Elder Hall remains the centrepiece along the geographic centre of a built environment of historic North Terrace boulevard – it is at the national heritage significance. A £20,000 grant from Sir Thomas Elder was used in our University in 1885 and, only two years later, the first School of Music in Australia was opened and to build, as its home, Elder Hall.
