Call For Nominations: Roseworthy 125 Humanitarian Awards

As part of the Roseworthy Campus 125 Celebrations, a small number of Roseworthy Graduates will be honoured in 2008 with Humanitarian Awards.

ROCA is now seeking nominations for this Award. People being nominated must have made a significant contribution to the betterment of humanity. They must be graduates of Roseworthy Agricultural College or Roseworthy Campus, but need not be ROCA members.

Anyone can nominate a graduate for this Award. All nominations will be assessed by a selection panel which will make the final determination on recipients.

Nominees must be living. Posthumous awards will not be made.

Over the past 125 years, graduates of Roseworthy have made an enormous contribution to the betterment of humanity in many areas such as:
- Medicine;
- Disease prevention;
- Advancement of International food and agriculture;
- Missionary work;
- Social or cultural;
- Environment;
- Legislature, Governance, Government;
- Other.

Humanitarian contribution may be centred on Australia or Internationally. Presentation of the Roseworthy 125 Humanitarian Awards will be made during the Commemoration Ceremony in Bonython Hall on Saturday 18 October 2008.

There is no set nomination form or pro-forma. However all nominations received must include details of:
- Nominator’s name & contact details;
- Nominee’s name & contact details;
- Nominee’s course & year at Roseworthy;
- Type of contribution to humanity;
- Level of contribution to humanity;
- Impact of humanitarian contribution;
- Other supporting information.

Nominations close on Monday 11 August, 2008.

Please mail nominations to ROCA, P.O. Box 503, Kent Town SA 5071 or e-mail to manson.dale@sa.gov.au in MS Word or pdf format.

Enquiries may be directed to Dale Manson on 041 8811233.
