Do you want to work for an iconic brand such as Apple? Do you want to work on campus? Apple wants YOU to be their Campus Rep in 2011!

These positions are paid at an above award rate and the program runs over the Semester 1 period. The campaign includes paid training which covers topics like project management, product knowledge, marketing planning and communication skills.

It is essential that you are familiar with the computers and are yourself an Apple Mac user. Top staffs receive a written reference for their CV and opportunities to earn bonuses. Recruitment may be competitive but successful applicants will come out with a rewarding experience.

Student Marketing Australia co-ordinates the program for Apple.
