A breath of fresh air

The University of Adelaide has become the first higher education institution in the State to establish an entirely smoke-free environment. The North Terrace campus will be followed by the other campuses including Waite and Roseworthy and residential facilities over the next 12 months. You can read more about our smoke-free campus online.

Competitions

Visit the Competitions page for details on how to enter this month’s great Adelaide onLION competitions:

The lucky winner of the June Haigh’s competition was Dr Julian Whiting, a science and engineering graduate based in South Australia. Julian was selected randomly from the June draw and his entry reads:

Please tell us in 25 words or less what Haigh’s means to you....

“In short, a reason to live, and more specifically, it is close to the sole reason to remain in South Australia, family/friends/job notwithstanding.”

Congratulations Julian!

» Win a Haigh’s Chocolate Hamper worth $80!
» Win a T-shirt from Apple

Win University of Adelaide merchandise!

There are three $100 vouchers for University of Adelaide Merchandise to be won! All you need to do is complete the Quiz on the Medical School’s 125th Anniversary. All correct entries will go into a draw and three lucky winners will each receive a $100 voucher for University of Adelaide merchandise.

Here’s a tip - all the answers are located at the official Med 125 web site. Entries are to be received by 30 July 2010. Good luck!
