GREAT MOMENTS IN MEDICINE

One of South Australia's biggest ever gatherings of medical professionals will take place next month to commemorate 125 years of medical programs at the University of Adelaide. A gala dinner will be held at the Adelaide Convention Centre on Saturday 4 September to mark the 125th anniversary of the University's Medical School. You can read the full article on our website or download the invitation.

ALUMNI OPPORTUNITIES

English for Professionals
The University of Adelaide’s English Language Centre, offers a 10 week part time course English for Professionals, designed for people from non-English speaking backgrounds who want a successful professional career in Australia. They may be a skilled migrant, a current or past overseas student or working as a professional. The course further develops general language proficiency and focuses on the skills and strategies required to advance in an Australian professional career. The next course commences 17 August, 2010. Classes are held on Saturdays and two evenings each week. For more information visit: www.adelaide.edu.au/elc/courses/engprof/.

Election of Graduates to Council Closes on 13 August
Don’t forget to vote in the election of graduate representatives to the University Council. The ballot closes at 10am on Friday, 13 August. To vote, click on the link in the email that was sent to eligible voters on 23 July.

What’s new with you?
If you’ve recently changed jobs, been promoted, moved interstate or overseas, got married, we want to hear about it! Share your good news with your fellow alumni by emailing us 50 words or less, including your name, degree and graduation year. High quality photos are also welcome. (300 dpi)
