MEET THE WORLD'S COOLEST INTERN

Commerce and Law graduate Katherine Liew has been named the inaugural World's Coolest Intern in a competition run by Singapore's Standard Chartered Bank. Katherine impressed the judges with her 'creativity and originality, showcased through a variety of social media channels'.

Katherine takes home the top prize of a 6 month internship as Standard Chartered's social media intern. She will be paid S$30,000 and receive training from some of the world's top social media people.

You can visit Katherine's Adelaide fashion blog here.

You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll throw the magazine away in disgust etc. etc. [read more]

Student Radio is looking for Broadcasters and Producers

Student Radio has had a fantastic year of top quality broadcasting, and we need you to continue it into 2011!

- If you’ve ever listened to the radio and thought you could do better, then we want you.
- If you’ve ever listened to the radio and thought you were funnier than Fitzy, then we want you.
- If you’ve ever listened to the radio and found it lacking, then... well you see where we’re going here.
- We’re looking for both broadcasters and producers for our 2011 program season. Don't delay, grab an application form and give us your pitch!
