GRADUATES RETURN FOR GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS

A final wintry blast failed to dampen the spirits of more than 100 University of Adelaide alumni who recently celebrated the 50th anniversary of their graduation. The Golden Jubilee saw graduates from 1960 return to the scene of their original graduation, Bonython Hall, for a commemoration ceremony followed by a luncheon at the stately Mortlock Chamber of the State Library. 115 graduates - from as far away as the US, Singapore and the UK - were addressed by keynote speaker, fellow 1960 graduate and philanthropist Bob Cowan, and Vice-Chancellor Professor James McWha.
